

SAUG overview

Members

- 400 member companies and growing!
- Over 2500 individuals

Education

- Inclusion in influence and benchmarking surveys
- Over 200 hours of free education through out the year
- On going webcasts on specific topics/issues
- 160 -200 speakers share their experiences and expertise at SAUG event each year
- Access to industry experts and reports at no extra cost

Community

- 27 special interest groups (SIGs)
- 67 SIG meetings per with attendees exceeding 900 each year
- Most SAUG event includes an informal networking forum to allow attendees to group together in a single voice with any current issues/concerns
- SAUG main events exceed 1200 attendees per year
- Each SAUG main event holds an evening event to allow less formal networking with the SAP Executive Leadership Team
- CIO executive lunches held at each main SAUG event – each one attended by SAP CEO and Managing Director or SAP Executive
- Access to Global user groups and worldwide networking via the SAP User Group Executive Network (SUGEN) of which SAUG are an active member
- SAUG Ordinary membership (SAP customers) belongs to the company and allows all employees of that company access to SAUG resources once they obtain a user account and password (non-paying events hold a 6 employee limit per event at no charge – more may attend for a nominal fee)

Resources

- SAUG discussion forums and networking tools on line
- Free access to Webcasts
- More than 700 past presentations, webcasts, white papers and other informational documents stored in our on-line library
- SAP solution directory acts as a guide to SAP solution providers
- Hot links for short cuts to frequent SAP questions and information
- On-line community

SAP involvement

- SAP input and support for all SAUG events
- Direct conduit to SAP via development requests (DVRs)
- Networking group summaries are shared with SAP for further action and response is shared with SAUG members
- Regular SAUG Committee meetings with SAP Executive Leadership Team (ELT)
- Each SIG group has a dedicated SAP support person to assist with the latest updates and progressing issues and DVRs

Value

- Free entry to most SAUG events and discounted entry to the Annual SAUG Summit
- ASUG membership worth over $2,000 AUD is included in each SAUG membership
- On going yearly discounts on relevant publications
- All employees of a member company have access to SAUG resources and discounts via their own SAUG user account

SAUG Operations Manager
Kim Salter
Level 8, 60 Miller St. North Sydney NSW
02 8923 4447
0419 696 857